

SAYS ROOSEVELT LIAR; WILL SUE FOR LIBEL

NEW YORK, August 24.—Archbold sailed for Europe today. He issued a note saying: "I am not a liar and am not accustomed to being so accused. I shall not endure it lightly." He referred to Roosevelt's statement that he was a deliberate falsifier. When asked if he meant to sue Roosevelt for libel, he added: "I mean something to that effect." He said M. F. Elliott, chief of the Standard Oil counsel, would have charge of the case. Nothing will be done until Archbold returns from Europe.

OYSTER BAY, August 24.—Roosevelt declined to discuss his possible testimony in the Penrose Standard Oil scandal until he knows what the committee intends to do. He promises another statement tonight.

THREE REELS SHOW THE COMING OF COLUMBUS

THREE REELS WILL BE SHOWN AT THE BUTLER MONDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Without doubt the most gorgeous and realistic moving picture ever made in America will be shown at the Butler theater Monday afternoon and evening. This subject comes in three parts, showing a vivid portrayal of incidents in the discovery of the new world, depicting the trials and tribulations and glorious success of Christopher Columbus. The replicas of the famous ships, Santa Maria, Nina and Pinta, which carried Columbus and his crew to the new world, were built by the city of Chicago for use during the world's fair of 1893, and are used in this production after being put in perfect order. These ships are highly valued, and the Selig company was compelled to put up a bond of $50,000 for their safe return to the authorities. This is the first really great historical moving picture of American history. Its production has been the talk of two centuries, its presentation the wonder of the moving picture industry. Every man, woman and child should see the "Coming of Columbus," as it is entertaining, instructive and ennobling. This picture was made in 1911 and has been exhibited to the royalty of Europe, as well as the pope and other notable persons. Other pictures to be shown on Monday are Pathe Weekly of Current Events. The price of admission for this big show will be the usual 10 cents.

WOMAN KILLS SON

NEW YORK, August 25.—Despondent because of illness and the fact that one of her seven children was a sufferer from infantile paralysis, Mrs. Louis Nulman, 35 years old, wife of a wheelwright, killed her crippled boy and tried to kill herself and her 4-week-old baby by gas asphyxiation last night. Neighbors discovered the distracted woman's act in time to save her life and that of the baby, but the boy, aged 4, was taken dead from her arms.

LUMBER MAN MURDERED

SEAFORD, Del., August 25.—Shot and beaten into insensibility, John P. Perry, a wealthy lumber man and manufacturer, was found in his automobile along the roadside near here last night. Robbery is considered the motive for the crime, although Mr. Perry has not regained sufficient consciousness to tell anything.

AGAINST PEACE TERMS

LONDON, August 25.—In view of the pending conclusion of peace, the correspondent at Athens of the Times, says a deputation from the Aegean islands, which have been occupied by the Italians, will go to Rome to present a memorial declaring the islanders will not accept the resolution of Turkish rule.

ROOSEVELT PROBE WILL BE RESUMED ON ADJOURNMENT

SENATE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION COMMITTEE WILL CONTINUE PROBE

WASHINGTON, August 24.—The senate campaign contributions committee is considering when it will resume the Penrose-Roosevelt probe, and it is believed that no additional authorization is necessary to continue the investigation after the adjournment of congress.

TIME KILLED IN THE HOUSE BY MANY SPEECHES

CONGRESS MAY NOT ADJOURN TIME TENTATIVELY SET OWING TO DELAYS

WASHINGTON, August 24.—Because the engrossing clerks and conferees could not keep pace with the legislative hurrying of the senate, the house was forced to delay adjournment beyond the hour tentatively set, but it is certain the session will close early tonight.

The house killed the time with speeches, and then recessed until 4 o'clock. After a long debate on the Penrose resolution the senate recessed until 4 o'clock.

SALVATION ARMY TO HONOR THEIR DEAD LEADER

ALL POSTS IN AMERICA WILL BE SCENE OF PRAYER WHILE FUNERAL IS CONDUCTED

NEW YORK, August 24.—At the stroke of noon next Thursday the wheels of all industries of the Salvation Army will be stopped in memory of General William Booth, whose funeral will take place at a corresponding hour in London. For four hours every member of the Salvation Army in this country will drop his task and engage in prayer. Orders to that effect have been sent out from the army headquarters here.

Arrangements have been completed for memorial services to be held simultaneously in every city and important town in the United States at 3 p. m. Saturday, September 1. One program has been drawn up for all the eight military posts of the army in the United States and the various commanders have been requested to invite city and state officials, ministers of all denominations and Christians generally to take part in the country-wide memorial.

OPERATED ON HIMSELF

LOS ANGELES, August 24.—Jose Aramandez, a Mexican, is dead today as the result of having tried to relieve an attack of acute stomach trouble by performing an operation upon himself with a butcher knife. He died at the receiving hospital, where, in his death throes, he seized a pair of scissors from a nurse and attempted to kill himself to avoid his pain.

Superintendent William Blackburn of the Tonopah Mining company departed for Berkeley this morning, where he will join Mrs. Blackburn and they, with friends and relatives, will celebrate their wedding anniversary.

DECLARES SENATE SHOULD NOT OPEN UP CAMPAIGN SEWERS

WASHINGTON, August 24.—Just when the senate was about to agree on a resolution of investigation which would open up whatever Standard Oil taint there might be in the campaign contributions since 1904 and throw light on charges that certain legislators received money gifts from the oil trust, Heyburn of Idaho started a one-man filibuster.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

WASHINGTON, August 24.—Just when the senate was about to agree on a resolution of investigation which would open up whatever Standard Oil taint there might be in the campaign contributions since 1904 and throw light on charges that certain legislators received money gifts from the oil trust, Heyburn of Idaho started a one-man filibuster.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an adjournment without the adoption of the resolution.

Penrose and Poindexter had framed a resolution authorizing the Clapp committee to probe the charges voiced on the floor and before the Clapp committee.

Heyburn objected, declaring the senate should not open up the sewers of political contests. He retained the floor despite the efforts to dislodge him and it was apparent he hoped to force an